Wine Advocate # 179 Oct 2008	Jay Miller	91	Drink: 2010 - 2018	$58 (75)
---------------------------------	------------	----	-----------------------	-----------

The 2006 Pinot Noir Prisme was aged for 16 months in 65-70% new French oak. It has enough agility to be both richer and more elegant than its less pricy sibling. Pain grille, earth notes, black cherry and black raspberry aromas lead to a wine with good structure for the vintage, excellent grip, incipient complexity, and a long, pure finish. Give it 2-3 years in the cellar and drink it from 2010 to 2018.

Once known as Chateau Benoit, the winery focused on sparkling wines in its earliest incarnation. In 1999 the Benoits retired, the winery was sold, and the first Anne Amie vintage occurred in 2001. The bubbly is history and the estate now produces 14,500 cases of table wine from its 120 acres, 55 in production.
